Genoua, August 16. N. S.

THE Squadron of English Men of War, commanded by Admiral Aylmer, arrived here the 13th Instant from Leghorne. The Squadron, and afterwards the Admiral in particular, were saluted with a Discharge of several Guns from the Town, and the Senate sent four Noble Genoueses on board the Admiral, to Compliment him on his arrival in this Port; And this morning the said Squadron set sail for the Coast of Spain.

Venice, August 21. Signior Soranzo, Ambassador from this Republick to the Port, intends to take his Leave of the Senate in the beginning of the next week, and then to embark in order to his Voyage to Constantinople. A Convoy will sail from hence with the first fair Wind for the Morea, with a considerable Sum of Money to pay the Arrears due to the Venetian Forces in those Parts, and with 600 Soldiers lately arrived here from Terra-Firma to recruit those Troops, and a great quantity of Provisions and Ammunition. Signior Aluisio Gritti is lately chosen Procurator of St. Mark, and will make his Publick Entry as such on Tuesday next. Signior Foscolo newly chosen to be Proveditor or Governor of Zant, and Signior Foscarini Proveditor of Corfu, are gone from hence to their respective Governments. Our last Advices from Dalmatia give an Account, that Count Marsigli, the Emperor's Commissioner for settling the Limits, being come on the Frontiers of that Province, Signior Grimani, Commissioner from this Republick, went and encamped within half a League of him, and soon after Ibrahim Effendi, the Turkish Commissioner, pitched his Tents near the same place; and the usual Visits and Compliments having passed between them, they began their Conferences on the first Instant, about settling the Limits on that side between the Territories of the two Empires and this Republick, which they have continued ever since.

Warsaw, Aug. 22. The King has approved of the Resolutions taken by the Senate in their last Meetings concerning the Affair of Elbing; And the raising and disposing of several Sums of Money for paying the Forces of the Crown, and of Lithuania; For fortifying the frontier Places, and providing them with Artillery and Ammunition; For the Equipage of the Ambassadors Extraordinary to the Port; and for the Presents to be sent by him to the Grand Signior and his Chief Ministers, and other necessary occasions. The Baron Werner, Resident from the Elector of Brandenburgh, had Audience of the King on the 20th Instant, and has frequent Conferences with the Chief Ministers at this Court, in order to adjust the Affair of Elbing. The Commissioners whom the Elector of Brandenburgh is sending hither to join with him in this Negociation, are daily expected, and the King has appointed the Bishop of Cujavia, (who is now made Bishop of Cracow in the room of the late Bishop deceased) and the Palatine of Mariembourg, to Treat with them. The Cardinal Primate is gone to his Residence at Lowitz, to prepare things for the King's Reception, who intends to be there on the 25th Instant in his way to Germany. The Crown-General is gone back from hence to Russland to take Possession of Camieniec, the Turks, according to our last Letters from thence, being ready to evacuate the same. The Saxon Regiment of Foot commanded by General Fleming, called the Queen's Guards, are ordered to march from hence to Mariembourg, being to quarter in and about that City.

Dantzick, Aug. 28. They write from Moscow of the 6th Instant, that the Czar was still at Azoph, giving Directions for the fortifying that Place, and building of divers Men of War. These Letters add, that two great Fires have lately happened at Moscow, the one on the 27th of September, and the other on the 5th of August, by which near a third part of that City was reduced to Ashes.

Vienna, Aug. 26. The Emperor has appointed several Persons of Quality to attend the King of Poland, as he passes through the Imperial Territories in his Journey to Saxony. On the 20th Instant the Count of Dunhoff Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburgh, and the Sieur Bernoldi Resident from his Electoral Highness, received from the Emperor, in the Name of the Elector their Master, the Investiture of the Electorate, and other Imperial Fiefs possessed by his Electoral Highness; This Ceremony, which had been put off till this time by reason of the War, was performed with the usual Solemnity, and the Ministers of Brandenburgh made a very splendid Appearance on this occasion. The Count of Staremberg is gone from hence to Stockholm with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor. Count Oetting, the Emperor's Ambassador to the Port, having received Advice that the Turkish Ambassador is on his Journey hither from Andrinople, has resolved to depart from hence in a day or two, in order to meet him on the Frontier; and his Excellency intending to go the greatest part of the way by Water, divers Barges are preparing for him and his Retinue very finely painted and gilt, and adorned with Banners bearing the Imperial Arms. The Arch-Dutchess Mary Magdalen, who was taken ill some time ago of the Small-pox, is at present past all danger. Yesterday Count Simonetti arrived here from Croatia, with Letters from Count Marsigli the Imperial Commissioner for settling the Limits, giving an account of his having met the Venetian and Turkish Commissioners on the Frontiers of that Province, and of the Conferences he has had with them in order to settle the Limits in those Parts, and Count Simonetti will be dispatched back again in a day or two with the Emperor's Orders thereupon.

Copenhagen, Sept. 1. The King of Denmark, who has been very ill for some time, is now brought to so weak a Condition, that the Physicians seem to have very little hopes left of his Recovery. His Majesty received the Sacrament yesterday, and has recommended the Publick Affairs to the Prince Royal his Son, and given Directions about disposing of several things after his Death.

Hamburgh, Sept. 4. Letters from Copenhagen of the first Instant say, 'twas reported just before the Post came away, that the King of Denmark was dead.

Brussels, Sept. 9. An Extraordinary Courier arrived here last week from Madrid with Letters dated the 19th of the last Month, by which we have an Account, that the King of Spain continues in good health. Monsieur Dyckvelt came hither last Friday from Holland, and has had a private Audience of the Elector of Bavaria. Don Quiros, the Spanish Ambassador, went from this place the 2d Instant to Antwerp, from whence he intends in 2 or 3 days to continue his Journey to the Hague, pursuant to the Orders he has received from the King his Master. Monsieur d'Hofkirchen is returned hither from Turin, where he has been to Compliment the Duke of Savoy in the Name of the Elector of Bavaria on the Birth of the Prince of Piedmont. The Count d'Autel is come hither from his Government of Luxemburg, to desire the Elector will order a Sum of Money for making some necessary Repairs in the Fortifications of that Place, and for supplying the Garrison with Provisions and Ammunition; The Count of Masteyn, Governor of Courtray, is also come hither on the like account.

Dieren, Sept. 4. The Review of the Forces near Arnheim began the 2d Instant, when all the Horse and Dragoons passed before His Majesty in single Troops very well mounted, and in good order, as the Foot did yesterday in single Companies, appearing likewise in very good condition. The Review lasted both days from Nine in the morning till Six in the evening, and there was a very great Concourse of Persons of Quality from Holland and the
